ABOUT THE COMPANY

Known in the city since 1986 for its "visually arresting," "highly imaginative," dance theater works, and unusual collaborative projects, AMM & DCO is under the artistic direction of Philly native Anne-Marie Mulgrew. AMM & DCO's works have been seen in concert theaters, alternative spaces, site specific locations, schools, festivals, collaborative projects and for film and TV in the United States and Canada. Locally the Company's works has appeared at Suzanne Roberts Theater, The Barnes Museum, the Performance Garage, Christ Church Neighborhood House, The Wilma Theater, The Kimmel Center, University of the Arts Theater/Drake Theater, The Painted Bride, The Institute of Contemporary Art, The Philadelphia Museum of Art, PENN Museum, The Philadelphia Cathedral, Mandell Theater, Penn's Landing, Fairmount Park, The Horticultural Center, Pennsylvania Convention Center, Philly Fringe Festival/Live Arts, Parallax Pictures Studios, and The Sanctuary at The Rotunda, to name a few.

Fusing modern dance, theater, music, technology and art, the company charms, provokes and informs audiences of all ages with its insightful and wacky views of the world. The company consists of 5-7 professional dancers and esteemed peer collaborators. Additional performers are used on a project basis to flesh out materials and involve new communities.
